Child Safeguarding Statement

Atlantic Technological University (ATU) is one of Ireland's largest Higher Education Institutions providing third level education. The facilities of ATU are also accessed by the wider community for sporting and cultural events.

In accordance with the requirements of the Children First Act 2015, Children First: National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children 2017 has agreed the Child Safeguarding Statement set out in this document, which is binding on all members of ATU.

Principles to Safeguard Children from Harm

ATU recognises the importance of child protection and welfare considerations in relation to university life and that these must be reflected in all policies, procedures, practices, and activities. In its policies, procedures, practices, and activities, ATU will adhere to the following principles of best practice:

ATU will:

- Recognise that protection and welfare of children is of paramount importance, regardless of all other considerations.
- Fully comply with its statutory obligations under the relevant legislation relating to protection and welfare of children.
- Fully co-operate with the statutory authorities in relation to child protection and welfare matters.
- Adopt safe practices to minimise the possibility of harm or accidents happening to children and to protect workers from the necessity to take unnecessary risks that may leave themselves open to accusations of abuse and neglect.
- Fully respect confidentiality requirements in dealing with child protection matters.

ATU will also adhere to the above principles in relation to vulnerable adults.

Risk Assessment

In preparing this statement we have completed a risk assessment of the potential for harm to children when engaging with ATU Sligo. A more comprehensive risk assessment is included in the Child, Young and Vulnerable Persons Protection Policy. General risks identified and the policies that address those are as follows:

ATU Child Protection Policy

Procedure and Guidelines for Working Safely with Children

Procedure for Responding to and Reporting Child Protection Concerns

Procedure for Child Protection Allegations Involving ATU Members
